

WHAT IS A PROTECTIVE ORDER?

A protective order, or PO, is an order issued by a civil court, a juvenile court, a family court, or a criminal court. PO's can protect you from being hit, threatened, harassed, or stalked by another person. PO's may also stop someone from coming into your home or bothering you at work. Protective orders can also stop the abuser from buying a firearm or finding your address through school records. A protective order can also stop the abuser from taking your minor children without a court order.

This program is supported by grants from Community Foundation of North Louisiana, Carolyn W. and Charles T. Beard Family Foundation, First United Methodist Church, Krewe of Justinian, and Louisiana Bar Foundation

WHAT IS THIS PROGRAM?

The Shreveport Bar Foundation Legal Representation for Victims of Domestic Violence "SBF LRVDV" gives free legal help, advice and representation to victims of domestic violence. This help includes providing an attorney to go to court with you to get a protective order.

WHO CAN GET A PROTECTIVE ORDER?

- ANYONE who has been physically, emotionally or sexually abused.
- ANYONE threatened by someone they have been married to, lived with, have a child with, or dated.

Some examples may include:

- Current or former spouse;
- Current or former partner;
- Family member;
- Other parent of your child;
- Anyone who has been stalked. (Stalking is repeated harassment that makes you feel scared.)
- Current or former roommate;
- Current or former person you dated;

IS IT JUST A PIECE OF PAPER?

While some abusers do violate protective orders in some way, these protective orders often stop repeated physical abuse.

WHAT SHOULD I BRING WHEN I MEET WITH THE LRVDV STAFF ATTORNEY?

- Police reports, medical records, photographs, and names, addresses and phone numbers of witnesses to the abuse.
- Any information about the abuser - current address, date of birth or age, hair color, eye color, height, weight, address, Social Security number, or driver's license number.
- Any court papers you can obtain. For example, custody and/or parenting time orders, lease agreement, divorce papers, or criminal case records. You will need to bring a one-time $50 administrative fee in the form of cash or money order. If your protective order is granted, the judge may order the abuser to reimburse you for this fee. This fee is for the purpose of running the program and not for court costs.

HOW CAN I GET HELP WITH A PROTECTIVE ORDER?

1. Come to the Shreveport Bar Foundation at 625 Texas Street, one block from the Caddo Parish Courthouse, in downtown Shreveport or call (318) 221-8104 for an appointment.
2. The SBF LRVDV staff has protective order forms and will help you fill out the forms. There is no court cost to file a PO petition.
3. The SBF LRVDV staff attorney will meet with you, review your forms, give you advice, and represent you in court to get a protective order, all free and without charge.
4. There are no attorneys fee's charged for the staff attorney and no court costs to file a protective order.
5. The only cost is a one-time administrative fee which the judge may order the abuser to reimburse you if the protective order is granted.

HOW ARE ORDERS OF PROTECTION ENFORCED?

Violation of a protective order can be addressed through both civil and criminal action. In civil court, the defendant who violates a protective order can be ruled back into court on an allegation of contempt of court. In addition, violation of certain orders of protection is a crime in Louisiana and the defendant can be arrested for the violation (see La. R.S. 14:79. Violation of protective orders). If found guilty, he can be incarcerated and/or fined.

CARRY A COPY OF YOUR PO WITH YOU AT ALL TIMES!!
This will help police enforce the PO if there is a violation.

Remember, while POs do work, it is important to be careful and have a safety plan.
